Senior Class of 1957

As we rub Aladdin's lamp, we can reminisce and recall when we first entered the halls of K.H.S. Through the smoke and mist of bygone days we can see ourselves enter as green, inexperienced, and excited "freshies."

Give the lamp a gentle rub and you'll see John Bowman leading the freshman class in a rousing, money-making class meeting. Other old favorites of Aladdin are George Clark, vice-president; Marcia Randall, secretary-treasurer; and Pam Beecher and Jim Philblad, Student Council representatives.

When we light the wick of the lamp again we can dimly make out our sophomore year. Oh—yes, it is coming clearer now. Remember? George Clark was president; Joe Markley, vice-president; and Ardathe Stone, secretary-treasurer. On Student Council were Carol Peterson and Jim Marks.

Our junior year . . . how exciting! Now we could pick our class rings and look forward to the unforgettable Junior-Senior Prom. Quick, rub the lamp again before it runs out of oil, so we can see another class meeting, this one led by a girl president, Sharron Washabaugh. Rollie Roselle was vice-president. Pam Beecher watched 'all of that money,' which was well over a thousand dollars—until after the prom. Serving on the Student Council were Carol, again, and George Clark. The prom, which had a Parisian theme and was held in the music room of the school for the first time in several years, was one of the most successful proms ever held by a junior class. We started the evening with a wonderful steak dinner and ended it with a dance in a room decorated to give a Parisian atmosphere. But wait

. . . this is fading out . . . rub the lamp one more time and see if we can look at our last year. Hurry, rub it before it fades away . . . hardly any time remains.

There is Jim Philblad trying to quiet the class to decide where to go on our senior trip. Even though there was much disagreement, we still spent three wonderful days at the Lake of the Ozarks. We'll never forget 'Litchfield's last stand' and Duane Johnson's letter writing. Of course we can still remember the help of Mrs. Leasure and Mr. Gerding. Dean Rader served as vice-president and Larry Lowe kept track of our money. Ray Godsil, who was the president of Student Council, had for company, representatives Joe Markley and, of course, Carol. Now we hear the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" and see Miss Pam Beecher escorted by Joe Markley at Homecoming as queen and king. And look! There is Sharron Washabaugh escorted by Ray Godsil . . . Mary Delost escorted by George Clark, attendants and escorts in the coronation. What is the theme of Homecoming? Time is getting short, so rub that old lamp . . . quickly! Ah, yes, I see . . . don't you? "Heavenly Daze" was the theme and a most unforgettable memory. And while we're rubbing the lamp, perhaps Aladdin will permit us to recall for a moment our junior high days in which our basketball team began to shape up to become one of the most outstanding teams in the history of K.H.S.

Time is fading . . . the lamp has run out and we will never see our high school days again—but we can remember, can't we?

Senior class advisers: Mr. Johnson, Mrs. Leasure, Mr. Gerding, Mr. Litchfield.

Class of 1958

In the fall of the year, we juniors chose Lance Humphreys as president of our class. He was assisted by Ray Cramer, vice-president, and Shirley Hughbanks, secretary-treasurer. Five of our class members represented us on Student Council. They were Ila Bybee, Gary Tasker, Lance Humphreys, Judy Hutchcroft as SC secretary-treasurer, and Rod Godsil as SC vice-president. Nancy England and Judy Hutchcroft were chosen junior editors of the Jester and Blue Bulletin respectively.

Many junior boys found it hard to obey the coach's rule of 'early to bed' during football, basketball, track, and baseball seasons in which many participated. Ila Bybee and Darleen Rader were two of the varsity cheerleaders.

At the Homecoming festivities, our junior class representative, Nancy England, was chosen attendant to the queen.

With our senior trip in mind, we sponsored money-making projects such as victory dances, bake sales, and concessions at games.

As spring rolled around, we anxiously awaited the choice of a junior play to be directed by Mrs. Van den Heurk. Some of us even rehearsed lines from Shakespeare to improve our dramatic ability!

Junior and senior couples decked out in their Sunday best were "wined, dined, and entertained" by the juniors at the annual Junior-Senior Prom in April.

The responsibilities of the past year made us feel that we are now ready to step into the even bigger shoes of the "real upperclassmen".

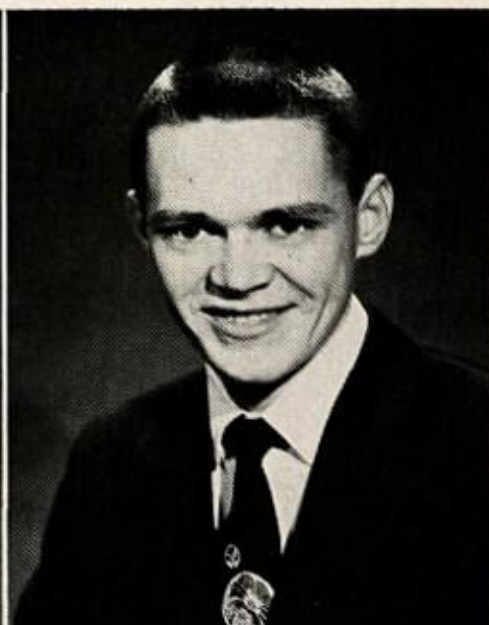

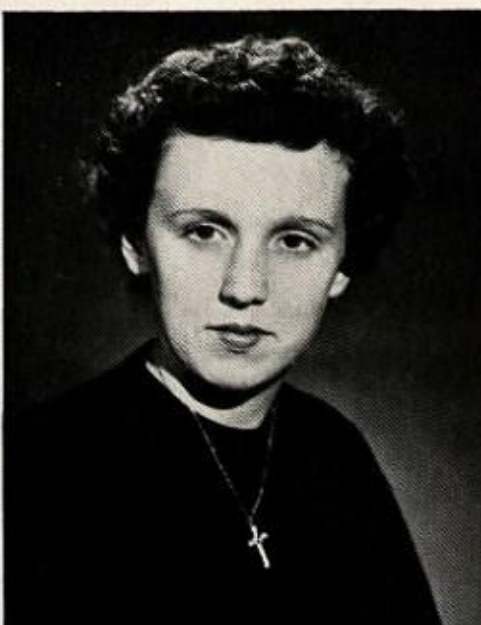

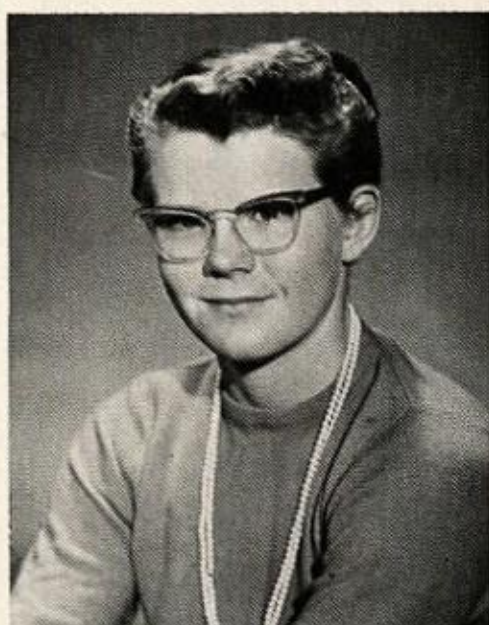

Junior class advisers: Mr. Hanson, Mr. Gregory, Mr. Whicker, and Mrs. West.

Sophomore class officers and advisers: Seated: J. Morris, J. Nelson, B. Woodward, S. Terry, N. Breece. Standing: Mrs. Van den Heurk, Mrs. Hopkins, Mr. Miller, Mr. Royar.

We sophomores, the class of 1959, completed another successful (??!!) year at K.H.S. In the fall we chose Bud Woodward as our president. Bud was an old hand at this job after serving as freshman class president last year. We chose Jerry Nelson to be vice-president and Sally Terry to be secretary-treasurer. Nancy Breece and John Morris represented us at Student Council meetings.

The first item on our agenda was Homecoming. Our plans for the float were to build two large perfume bottles named Danger and Surrender and to use the slogan "We Scent Victory." But in the midst of our preparation "Danger" fell over and we had to remake it! Nevertheless, on the big day we walked off with the first place prize in the class division. During the coronation Nancy Breece represented us as attendant to a maid-of-honor.

Other items on our agenda were concessions, bake sales, and after-game dances.

Many of our boys represented us in sports. We were very proud of our sophomore basketball team which won first place in the Knox County Tournament. Our junior varsity cheerleaders—Joyce Carter, Janet Larson, Irene Spurgeon, and Sue Woolsey, supplied the enthusiasm for all games.

Mr. Miller as chairman was assisted by Mrs. Hopkins, Mr. Royar, and Mrs. Van den Heurk in guiding us through another year at K.H.S.

Freshman class officers: Seated: D. Kelly, I. Nelson, R. Stevens, C. Wooldridge, R. Godsil. Standing: Mrs. Huston, Mr. Ames, Mr. Manuel, Mr. Hahn.

With the past year over, we in the Class of 1960 can look back on our first year of "high" school with pleasant memories.

To lead us through our "green" year, we chose Roger Stevens. Assisting him were Ila Nelson, vice-president, and Carol Wooldridge, secretary-treasurer. Rosalie Godsil and Denny Kelly served on Student Council.

Getting off to a flying start we won first prize with our Homecoming skit, "Flying Saucers," breaking two phonograph records in the process. Ellen Martin, our representative in the Homecoming coronation, was attendant to a maid-of-honor.

To start us off "properly" on our road through K.H.S., the seniors initiated us on the annual Initiation Day. Johnny Whitsitt and Sue Smith were chosen king and queen for the day.

Some of our money-making projects were bake sales and concessions. We had planned a big project, a semi-formal dance, only to find out that we had already bought a $40 party (!) — which, of course, couldn't go to waste.

Leading the fans in cheers for our athletes were Sue Smith, Rosalie Godsil, and Carol Wooldridge as junior high varsity cheerleaders.

Our willing sponsors, who helped us in many ways during the year, were Mr. Ames as chairman, Mrs. Huston, Mr. Manuel, and Mr. Hahn.

Peterson were our Student Council representatives. Judy Beecher represented us in the Homecoming coronation as a junior marshal.

We were well represented on the junior high basketball, football, and track squads, as there were nineteen boys who went out for these sports.

We wore the traditional green caps at the Class Day exercises and eagerly looked forward to becoming "green freshies."

Seventh

Although we were not too well acquainted with our surroundings, eighty-seven of us seventh graders eagerly entered the halls of K.H.S. last fall.

To start things off, we elected officers. Rama James was president; Tom Batell, vice-president; and Kay Woolsey, secretary-treasurer. We chose Jean Anell, and Steve Rose as Student Council representatives.

We were well represented in sports as several boys were active in basketball, football, and track. Kay Woolsey served as a pony cheerleader.

We sponsored many money-making projects such as bake sales, Blue Bullet scarf sales, hall concessions, and concessions at games. A booth at the Jester Carnival was another of our projects.

We also gave several parties, one of which was the unique "Valentine Pie" party.

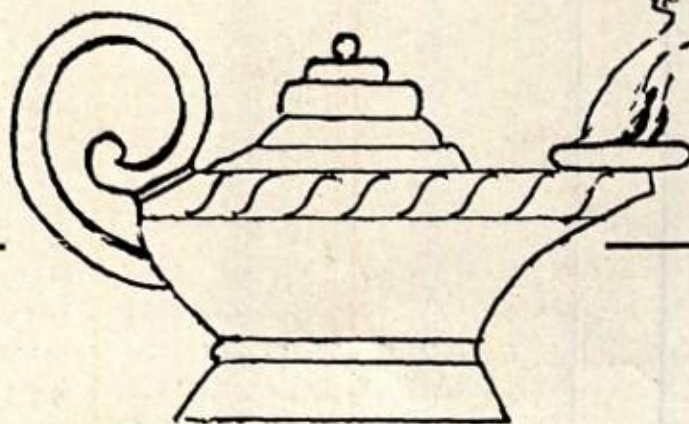

Mrs. German as chairman, Mrs. Johnson, Mr. King, and Mr. Lacy were our sponsors who worked very hard helping us make money for our trip at the close of the school year.

Blue Bulletin adviser and editor: Mr. Hahn, S. Washabaugh.

Blue Bulletin Staff

Twenty-five of us on the 1956-57 Journalism Staff worked diligently to put out the Blue Bulletin every two weeks.

Under the leadership of Sharron Washabaugh, our editor-in-chief, we on the Blue Bulletin staff spent much time preparing the stories and seeing that the paper went to press on time.

We also spent much time throughout the year preparing layouts, pictures and various write-ups for the 1957 Jester. The yearbook was prepared under the direction of Pam Beecher, our editor-in-chief. Mr. Hahn was our adviser for both the paper and the yearbook.

Another project of the year was the rewriting and revision of the Blue Book for publication in 1957.

All our bookkeeping was capably handled by our business manager, Ardathe Stone.

Student Council

Student Council officers and adviser: Ray Godsil, Mr. Spencer, J. Hutchcroft, Rod Godsil.

The 1956-57 Student Council, composed of twenty-one members, was led by Ray Godsil, president; Rod Godsil, vice-president; and Judy Hutchcroft, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Spencer, K.H.S. principal was the adviser.

The Student Council set a very active pace in school affairs this year. A magazine drive in the fall cleared $700. After the drive, a party was held in the music room for all students who sold six dollars worth or more of magazines.

The money derived from this drive enabled the Student Council to help the school in many ways. A sum of $150 was given to the Journalism Staff to help publish the Blue Book.

One of the Council's main projects, the Quad-County Student Council Convention, was held at Knoxville in April. This convention was arranged and sponsored by the local Council.

Assisting her were Pam Beecher, vice-president; Judy Hutchcroft, secretary; Peg Wilburn, treasurer; and our adviser, Mrs. Hopkins.

During swimming, bowling, hockey, basketball, and other point-earning activities, Dianna Hughes, pointkeeper, was seen scurrying around keeping track of points.

"Tinsel Twilight" was the theme of our Christmas semi-formal held in the music room. We sponsored the high school varsity cheerleaders, held concessions in the halls, and had a booth at the Jester Carnival.

Future Homemakers of America

"Girls, be sure to write this down; it will help on 'How Do We Rate!'" These are the often-remembered words of our president, Alice Zander, who led us in our third successful year at K.H.S. Assisting her were Judy Anderson, vice-president; Sue Woolsey, secretary; and Nancy England, treasurer. The chapter advisers were Mrs. West and Mrs. Huston, who were helped by the "chapter moms," Mrs. England and Mrs. Bybee.

Our year began with an impressive candle-light service in which all new members were initiated into the chapter by the officers. Other activities included donating food to the needy on Thanksgiving and Christmas, cleaning venetian blinds, serving coffee at teachers' meetings, and presenting a style show for the P.T.A. entitled "Princess for a While."

On February 2 we sponsored our annual "Sweetheart Swing" at which Ellen Martin was chosen "Sweetheart" by the F.F.A. chapter. She was attended by Nancy Breece, Peg Wilburn, and Alice Zander.

Our year ended with the candle-light induction ceremony for new officers in May.

Future Farmers of America

In the spring of 1956 we chose Rollie Roselle to lead our 1956-57 F.F.A. chapter. We chose George Clark as vice-president, Lance Humphreys as secretary, Larry Lowe as treasurer, Chuck Sopher as reporter, Joe Markley as sentinel, and John Bowman as director of public relations. Mr. Litchfield was our very capable adviser.

At the state convention in June, which five of our members attended, Don Cowman was elected director of District One, and George Clark and Duane Stomberg sang in the state chorus.

In August many of us exhibited at the Knox County Fair where we took second place honors in the amount of money won. Several of us advanced to the Illinois State Fair with our prize-winning entries.

This year we had the honor of being host to the Sectional Leadership School which included an officers' training school and a banquet.

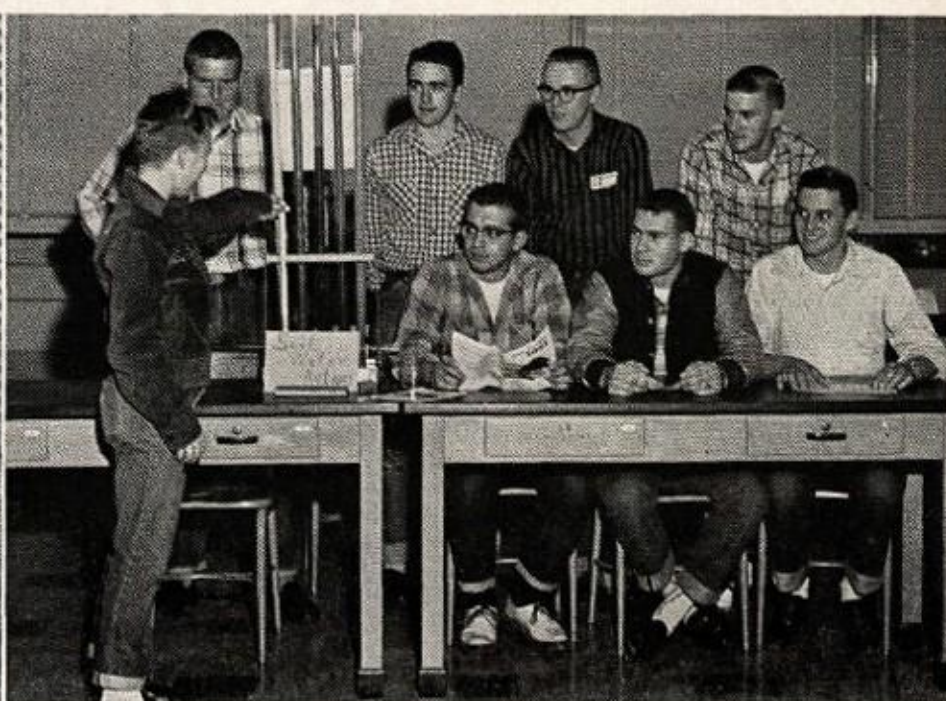

During October seven of us, accompanied by Mr. Litchfield, attended the National F.F.A. Convention at Kansas City, Missouri.

As a money-making project, we made cement hog troughs which we sold to local farmers.

On the thirtieth of March we entertained our parents at the annual Parent and Son Banquet.

Science Club

We of the Science Club celebrated our eighth anniversary at Knoxville High School. Again this year we chose Ray Godsil as president. Assisting Ray were George Heidenblut as vice-president, Pat Grady as secretary, Rollie Roselle as treasurer, John Bowman as business manager, and Mr. Gerding as adviser.

To start the year off right, our Homecoming skit, which was written by Jim Monkman, took second place in the club division.

In November many students enjoyed prize winning pictures which we hung on the cafeteria walls.

Finding soon after Christmas vacation that we needed money, we began earnestly to collect dues. Profits from hall concessions also contributed to our treasury.

Several of us began projects in January for the District Science Fair in April and the State Science Fair in May.

Nat'l Honor Society Jr. Red Cross

This year for the first time in the school's history, there was a National Honor Society chapter at Knoxville High School. At the end of the first semester the ten charter members, all seniors, were chosen by the teachers on the basis of character, service, leadership, and scholarship. Mr. Johnson was the sponsor.

At our first meeting we elected Sandy Vincent president, Rosalie Cowman as vice-president, Carolyn Schideman as secretary-treasurer, and Linda Ward as reporter. Mrs. Johnson was our adviser.

Two of our projects were giving a Christmas party at the Mary Davis Home and sponsoring a drive for clothes to aid the Hungarian refugees.

Latin Club

With a record membership of sixty-three, we of the Latin Club elected Jim Marks as president for his second consecutive year. We elected Mary Westerfield vice-president and Sharron Washabaugh secretary-treasurer. Our adviser was Mrs. Huston who at one time or another taught us Latin.

Initiation of the freshmen on October 8 was the first event of the year. A potluck supper was held in the evening and all of us attending watched the freshmen perform stunts.

We worked very hard on our Homecoming skit entitled "Grapes of Wrath" and took top honors for having the best club entry.

On December 17 the Christmas Tea was held in the music room to show appreciation to our mothers for the help they gave us during the year.

Our biggest event of the year was the Roman Banquet which took place in April. We came dressed in sheets or togas and reclined in typical Roman fashion on the floor. Next year's freshman Latin students served as our "loyal slaves."

Boys Intramural Council

In B.I.C.'s third year as a school club, we had fifty-four members. We participated in nine events including horseshoe pitching, free throws, table tennis, basketball, badminton, volley ball, bait-casting, decathlon, and cross-country racing.

One of the biggest projects we had this year was the selling of vitamin pills to the boys in physical education classes. The vitamins were sold only for the boys' benefit.

This year's president was Otis Martin. He was assisted by the vice-president, Pat Grady; the secretary-treasurer, John Bowman; and club reporter Rollie Roselle. Mr. Manuel was our adviser.

At the end of last year there were seven boys who had earned eleven hundred points and who were awarded bronze awards. They were Jim Marks, Jim Philblad, Dean Rader, Charles Schide-man, David Dinsmore, Warren Felder, and George Heidenblut. Two boys, Allen Pferschy and Gene Derham, had earned twenty-five hundred points and were awarded silver awards. Allen Pferschy was also awarded the B.I.C. Senior Honor Award last year.

The curtain parted in September for the seventh time on the Knoxville High School Dramatics Club.

Tryouts were held in the library with Mary Delost chosen as the leading lady. Carl Stevens was vice-president while Joyce James was in charge of the box office receipts. We were capably directed by Mrs. Van den Heurk.

Highlights of Act I were money-making projects such as bake sales.

Act II featured us enjoying plays at Knox College and giving one-act plays for our own entertainment and that of small audiences. Turning again to fund-raising, we had a booth at the Jester Carnival.

Act III found us treating the seniors to a farewell picnic in the spring.

With this the curtain rang down on another happy and successful year of dramatic productions at K.H.S.

Seated: S. Voeller, J. Benson, S. Booton, B. Hutson, M. Tuthill, J. James, S. Washabaugh, J. Link, L. Potter, J. McMillan, K. Eckman, H. Delost, J. Lentz. Standing, First row: R. Carr, C. Tuthill, M. Library Club

Under the leadership of Sharron Washabaugh, president; Joyce James, vice-president; and Janet Link, secretary-treasurer, we in the Library Club had a successful year filled with many activities.

The thirty-four of us planned modern decorations for the library at Christmas. Throughout the year we arranged book displays for the enjoyment of the school.

A wiener roast in the rain, a Christmas party, and a spring picnic are among the special activities we remember.

Several of us served as library assistants during our study hall periods. Mr. Johnson, Library Club sponsor, taught us how to process the books and care for the library.

In February we became affiliated with the Illinois Student Library Association and began to plan continued activities for the next year.

K. H. S.

This year our K.H.S. Band did very well under the direction of a new leader, Mr. Whicker. Our well-balanced group was composed of fifty-nine members.

During the football season we marched and played at half-time and participated in the Homecoming and 125th Anniversary parades. Headed by Alice Zander, drum majorette,

First row: P. Beecher, M. Vedell, J. Hutchcroft, M. Delost, S. Woolsey. Second row: N. Breece, L. Thompson, B. Smith, B. Ecklund, J. McMillan, R. Howarter, S. Ehringer. Third row: D. Burmood, S. our twirlers were Linda Hutchison, Kathy Imler, and Janet Link. When basketball season rolled around our pep bands were "In the Mood."

The climax of the year came with district and state contests and the annual Spring Concert.

Although it was a busy year, we found time to perform at the "University of Gilson"!

Beginners Band

When Mr. Whicker began with us twelve students, little did we know that we might some day rise to greater fame—the high school band.

The past year we worked hard for our concert on March 26. As the year ended, we were much nearer our goal.

If we rub Aladdin's lamp hard, maybe our wishes will be granted and some day we will graduate from sour notes to soothing tones.

Intermediate Band

The vacancies in the K.H.S. Band will be filled next year by many of us thirty-three members in the intermediate band. Our director, Mr. Whicker, has been striving to prepare us for these vacancies.

On March 26 we participated in a Junior High concert. Although our activities were limited, we hope in the future to find ourselves performing on many occasions with the K.H.S. Band.

Orchestra I and II

Our combined group of eight intermediates and two beginners was composed of seventh and eighth graders. Mr. Whicker, our director, was pleased with the fact that most of us owned our instruments.

The success of our concert given March 26 was the result of hard work in class periods as well as individual practice at home.

Orchestra III

The K.H.S. Orchestra, including woodwinds and brasses, numbered twenty-one. We were directed by our new leader, Mr. Whicker. Rehearsals were held every first and third Monday evening of each month.

We looked forward to both of our concerts for a chance to wear our attractive uniforms—white ballerina length formals for girls and white dinner jackets and tuxedo pants for boys.

Third row: B. Marks, K. Henderson, J. Moore, K. Davies, A. Jefferson, B. Carleton, I. Spurgeon, C. Gardner, Mrs. Luwe.

Girls' Glee Club

Two concerts highlighted the year for the Girls' Glee Club. On these occasions we wore dresses in pastel shades instead of white blouses and dark skirts as in previous years.

Our club numbered twenty-three and was composed mostly of freshmen. Mrs. Luwe directed us while Sally Terry accompanied us.

Junior High Chorus

Forty-three of us seventh and eighth graders came into the music room at the beginning of the year to make up a Junior High Chorus directed by Mrs. Luwe. Throughout the year we worked to improve ourselves and performed in the spring concert on April 6. The double sextet, taken from our chorus, sang on several occasions.

First row: L. Folger, R. Cowman, J. Shook, M. Peterson, S. Martin, V. Ramp, V. England, M. McCue, G. Downard, L. Bordwell. Second row: R. Rose, S. Senn, A. Townsend, M. Radenbaugh, C. Varner, C. K. H. S. Choir

Mrs. Luwe, our new choir director, very ably stepped into the shoes of Mr. Zimmerman and led us musically throughout the year. Pam Beecher was our accompanist.

Our first performance was at Homecoming where we sang "Hallelujah" and "My Blue Heaven." Later we sang at our winter concert, Kiwanis Club, Women's Club, and on April 4 at our spring concert. April 6 was the date of the district music contest, for which we prepared throughout the year.

From the past year we remember such things as "Ever see a square dance," stamp . . . clap, voom . . . pa, "Hospodi Pomilui," and many others.

A girls' sextet was newly-organized this year, and the mixed octet was continued from last year. Both groups sang at contest and on many other occasions.

Choir director: Mrs. Luwe.

Freshman Initiation

Initiation queen and king: Sue Smith and Johnny Whitsitt.

On the morning of August 31, 1956, shouts of "Praise the almighty seniors" were heard echoing through the halls of K.H.S. As initiation day wore on, these shouts grew a little hoarse but never decreased in exuberance. This "glorious day" was brought to a climax at the party given that night.

As the "freshies" arrived they were given a bit of refreshment—limburger cheese on crackers! The program was emceed by John Bowman and featured a wide variety of stunts. The highlight of the evening was a mock wedding presented by the new members of the faculty. The crowning of the king and queen, Johnny Whitsitt and Sue Smith, ended the 1956 initiation.

Brownies and pop parties, an ample supply of Kleenex and cold cream, a lot of fun listening to the Elvis Presley contest and, of course, plenty of hard work remind the ten members of the senior play cast of the wonderful time they had presenting the comedy, "Time Out for Ginger."

Even though the cast didn't win an "Oscar" for their outstanding performance, they received a first rate reception from the audience. To Mrs. Van den Heurk went the credit not only for the excellent direction, but also for her guidance, understanding, and patience with ten unpredictable seniors. The assistant directors, Alice Zander and Pat Dennis, painted stage flats and gave some much-needed prompting. Pat Grady and Larry Carlson were the added touch—to the light switch, that is—which helped the play go off with a bang.

Mary Westerfield, as fourteen-year-old Ginger, wanted to play football but soon changed her mind and started having dates instead. Others in the cast were Mary Condreay, Pam Beecher, Ray Godsil, Leanne Shreves, Ardathe Stone, Jim Philblad, Tom Liston, Jim Monkman, and David Dinsmore.

Junior Play ... "Our Town"

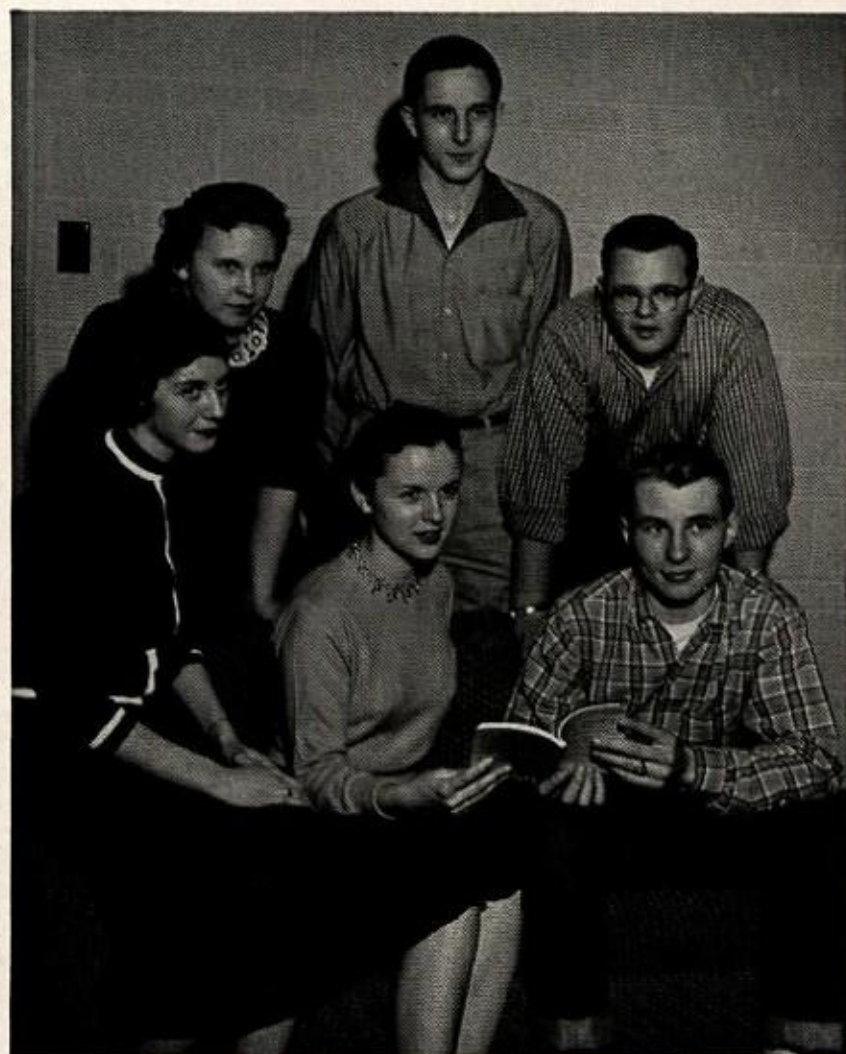

On May 6 the junior class presented the three-act play, "Our Town," by Thornton Wilder.

The play depicts the life of a New Hampshire village. It begins in 1901 in Grover's Corners where the Gibbs and Webbs are neighbors. During their childhood George Gibbs and Emily Webb are playmates. As they grow older, they pass from this period into a state of romantic, but embarrassed interest in one another. George proposes to Emily over an ice cream soda. Their happiness is shortlived for Emily is taken by death during childbirth.

Mrs. Van den Heurk was the director, assisted by Jeannie McMillan, Darlene Austin, and Kathy Imler.

The cast included Bill Boen, Melvin Stinebaugh, Gary Tasker, Bev Delawder, Janet Link, Norma Bradbury, Lance Humphreys, Ray Cramer, Nancy England, Jim Gunther, Sid Davis, Jack Derham, Ronnie Henderson, Malcolm Cochran, Shirley Hughbanks, Carol Swanson, Vicky Earnst, Logan Peterson, Roger Fahlund, David Dinsmore, Jim Monkman, Loita Flynn, Scott Markley, David Gardner, Joe Goff, and Roberta McCune.

The tryouts for the play, the rehearsals, and the performance brought to the cast many happy moments to remember.

1956 Prom . . .

"Vive La Prom"

Our prom was a "first" for it was the first one held in the music room. We can remember the ribbing we took from the seniors for this, but they were pleasantly surprised.

As we arrived on the night of the big evening, April 27, 1956, we were greeted by Bill Moore, our doorman, standing under the spotlighted canopy that extended out over the walk. Our wraps were ably handled by Janet Larson and Nancy Breece, the coat-check girls.

Everyone found his place at the individual tables attractively arranged and decorated in the cafeteria. On the walls hung two murals drawn by Leanne Shreves and Sharron Washabaugh. One mural depicted a French street scene and the other mural was of a cathedral. Three dimensional letters spelling out "Vive La Prom," our theme, were on the wall.

Our dinner consisted of swiss steak with all the trimmings and chocolate éclaires for dessert. After the dinner, Sharron Washabaugh, junior class president, gave the welcome, and Jerry Smith, senior class president, responded to the welcome. Dr. Jensen and Dr. Prince gave short speeches.

Then came the big moment when the dance room was opened for inspection. The music room was hard to recognize what with the false ceiling, luminous stars, five open air cafes, white wrought iron furniture, and flowers. Above the stage "Paris in the Springtime" was spelled out in luminous letters. A silhouette of a dancing couple and the Eiffel tower shown behind the band. The music was furnished by Gordon Sundberg and his Melody Makers.

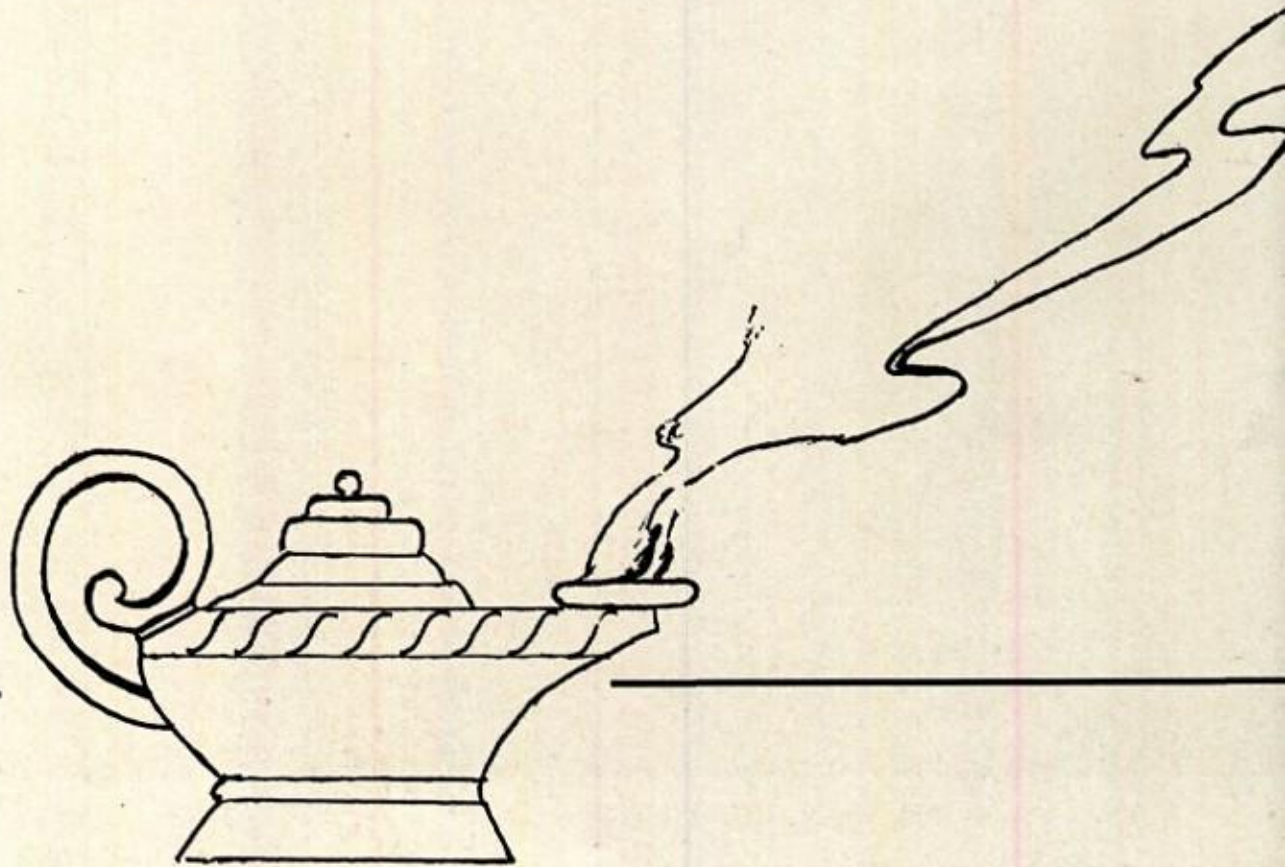

At the dance: P. Miller, F. Nelson, C. Peterson, W. Carter.

At the "Chez Paree": Mr. Goodwin, Mrs. Goodwin, J. Anderson, L. Shreves, J. McKay, J. Pferschy, S. England, M. Delost.

Leading the Blue Bullet cheers during successful football and basketball seasons were seniors Pam Beecher and Ardathe Stone and juniors Ila Bybee and Darleen Rader.

Football outfits consisted of gold corduroy slacks and white V-necked sweaters with felt megaphones and "K's" on the front.

Boat-necked gold velveteen costumes with "Bullets" on the bodice were designed by the girls for basketball season. These outfits took lots of wear and tear.

Rock n' roll pep assemblies, and novelty and song cheers were some of the ideas the girls brought back from the cheerleading clinic at Bloomington.

The excellent support of the students and the pep band made the tasks of the cheerleaders pleasant and enjoyable.

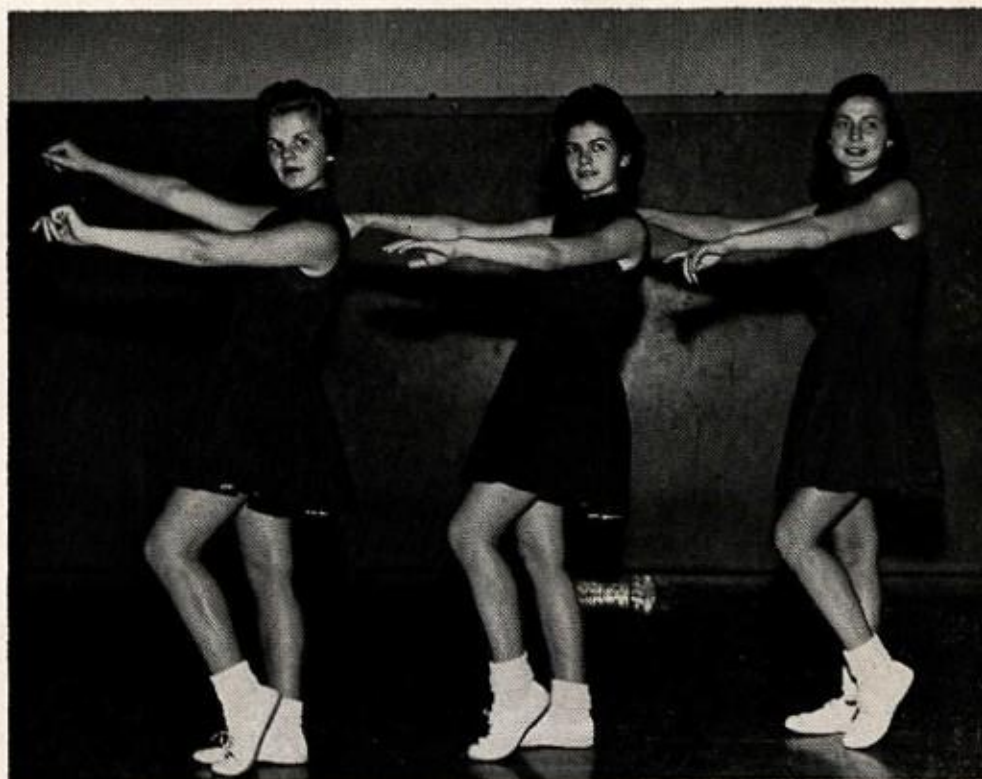

Junior Varsity cheerleaders: I. Spurgeon, J. Larson, J. Carter, S. Woolsey.

Jr. Varsity Cheerleaders

Joyce Carter, Janet Larson, Irene Spurgeon, and Sue Woolsey made up the junior varsity squad. These four snappy cheerleaders did a fine job in cheering their team to victory.

For football uniforms the girls selected matched blue slacks and Italian-necked shirts with gold K.H.S. letters on the front.

Each girl wore a blue velveteen outfit with gold lining and "Bullets" on the bodice during basketball season.

Jr. High Cheerleaders

The Junior High Varsity cheers were aptly led by Sue Smith, Carol Wooldridge, and Rosalie Godsil. During the gridiron season they sported blue slacks and white sweatshirts, while on the hardwood they wore royal blue corduroy outfits with "Baby Bullets" on the bodice.

Judy Beecher, Jeanne Rowe, and Kay Woolsey cheered the Junior High pony team on to victory. This peppy trio wore navy blue velveteen costumes lined in gold satin.

1956 Varsity Football

The Knoxville Blue Bullet football squad finished the season with a .500 percentage in the win-lost column of their eight scheduled games. Although hampered by inexperience, lack of size, and injuries, they won four and lost four.

Many of the boys saw their first varsity football competition with a win over Cuba.

At the season's close, the conference record stood at two wins and three losses. This put the Bullets in a tie for third place with Abingdon and Alexis in the Little Six conference.

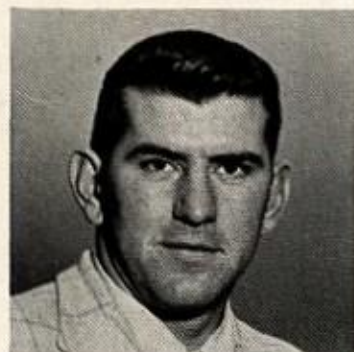

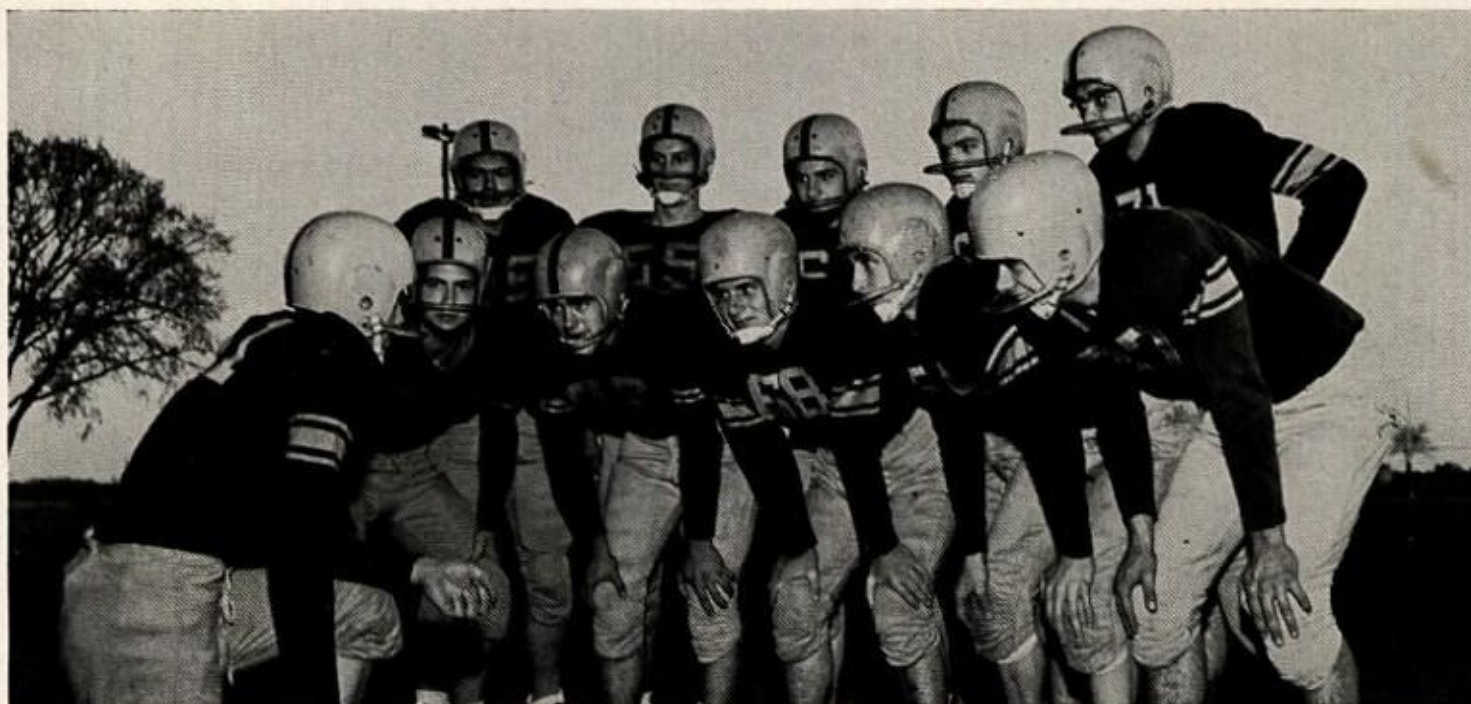

Knoxville was represented on the Little Six All-Star team by Jim Philblad, first team; Ray Godsil and Ray Cramer, second team; and Larry Carlson and John McKay, honorable mention.

Larry Carlson was captain of the 1956 team which was coached by Bob Gregory and Mick Lacy.

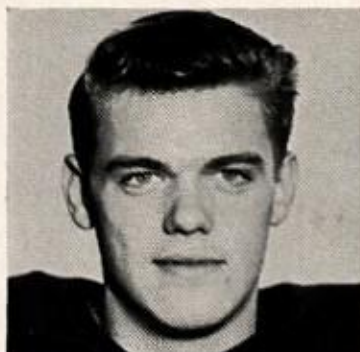

Five returning lettermen, all on the starting eleven, will be the nucleus of next year's team. Boys who played on the junior varsity squad and did not earn varsity letters will furnish additional experience needed next year.

CAPT. LARRY CARLSON—"Swede" held down right guard position very well despite the fact that he was the lightest man in the line. On defense, he played linebacker. He won honorable mention on the Little Six All-Stars.

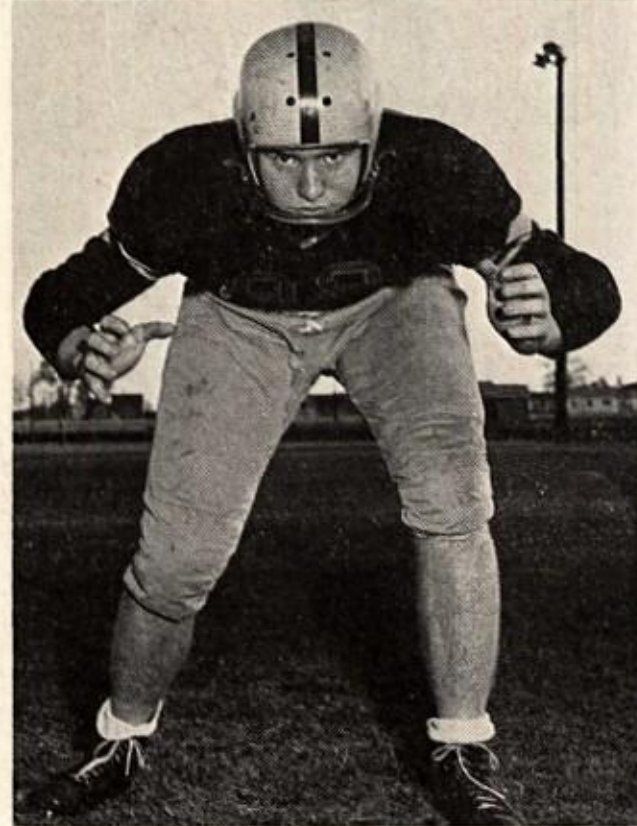

JIM PHILBLAD—"Peel," our quarterback, was outstanding on both offense and defense. His abilities did not pass unnoticed as he was placed on the Little Six All-Star team and All-Western second team, and won honorable mention on the Chicago Daily News' All-State team.

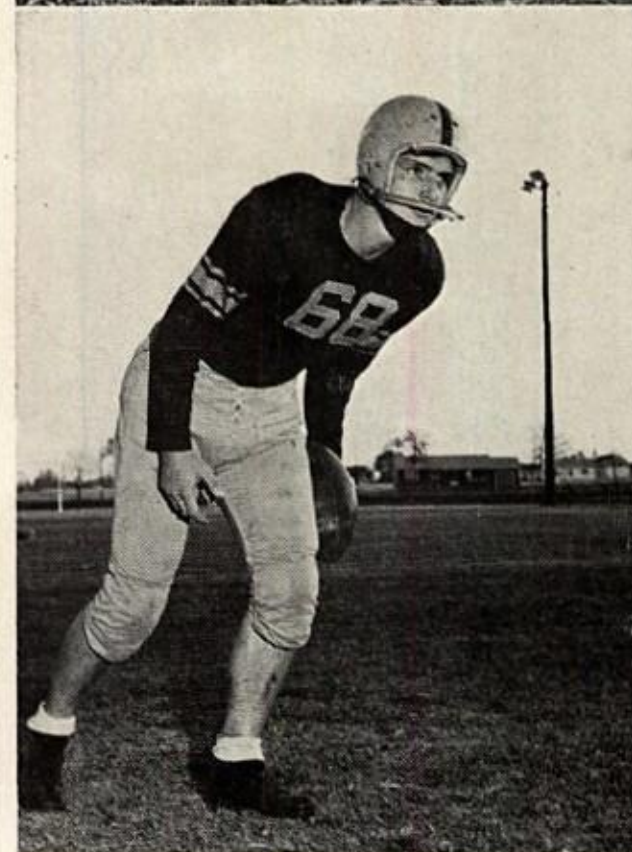

RAY GODSIL—"Swanee" was always downfield to snag many passes as our regular right end. Ray also played the same position on defense. He was placed on the Little Six second team and All-Western second team.

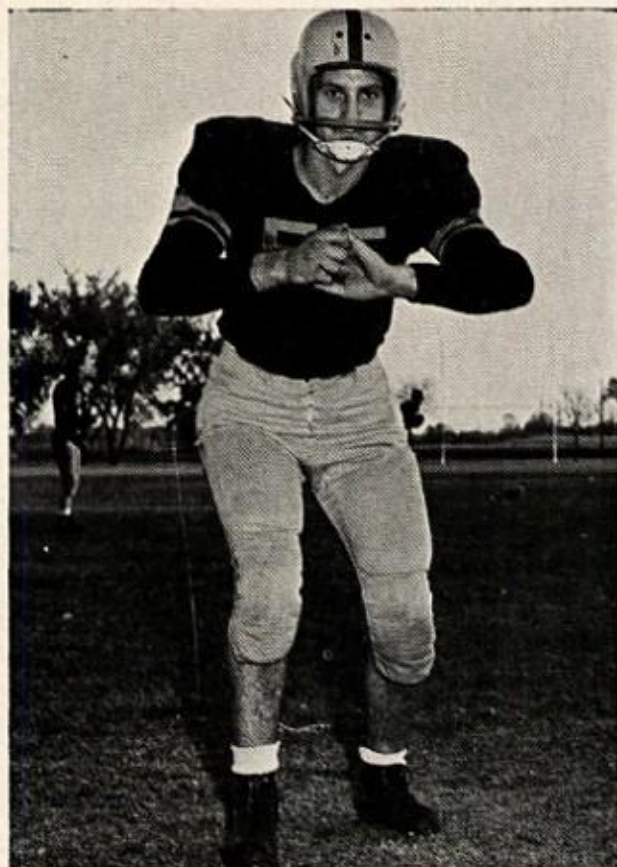

ROD GODSIL—"Rodsil" played as offensive and defensive tackle. Rod, usually playing against heavier opponents, did a creditable job and allowed little yardage through his side of the line. Being a junior, Rod will be back.

DAVE DINSMORE—Dave, the biggest man on our defensive unit, was the only regular to tip the scales above two hundred. He played the tackle position, and his opponents found him a hard man to move. He is a senior and will be lost by graduation.

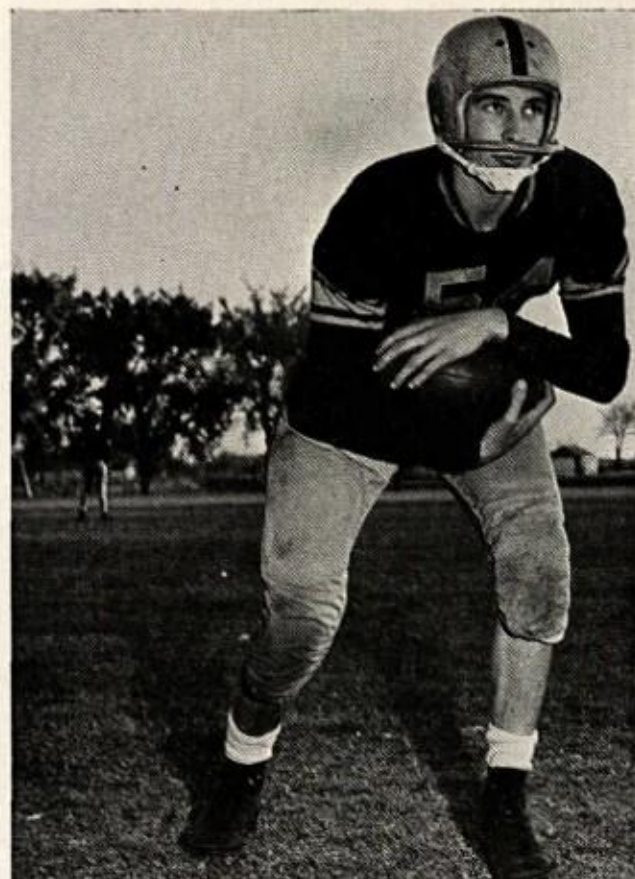

JACK WESTERFIELD—Jack, one of next year's returning lettermen, was one of our hardest-driving backs. He could always get an extra yard when needed. Jack also did the punting for the Bullets on offense. On defense he was moved to the end position.

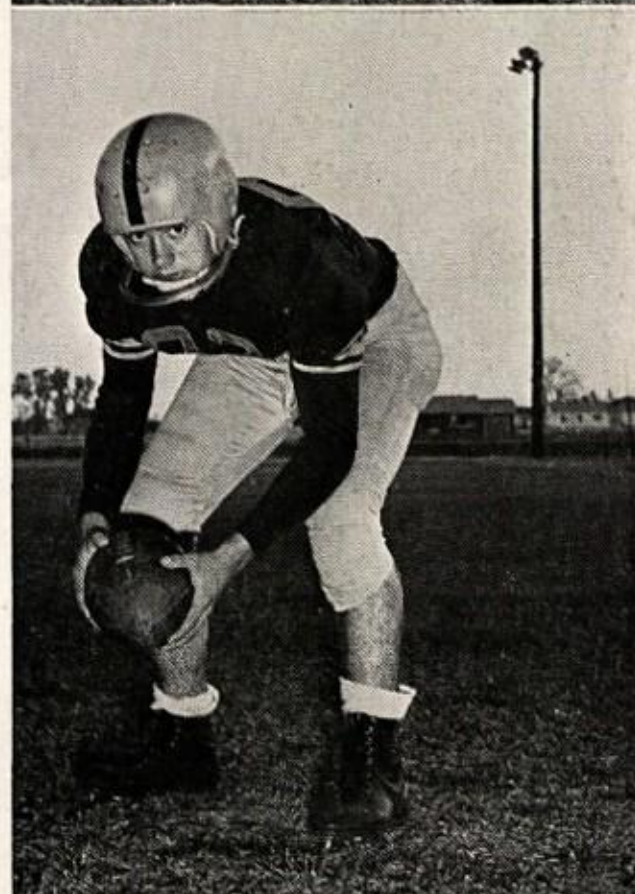

PAT GRADY—Pat, our Irish guard, was always a rough man to get past. Although Pat only weighed one hundred sixty-five, his Irish spirit was more than enough for his opponents to handle. His favorite play, the one where he kept the ball, is called the "Grady Special."

GARY TASKER—Gary played as a halfback on both offense and defense. However, in junior varsity games Gary played quarterback and displayed a good passing arm. Being a junior, he will be back to strengthen next year's team.

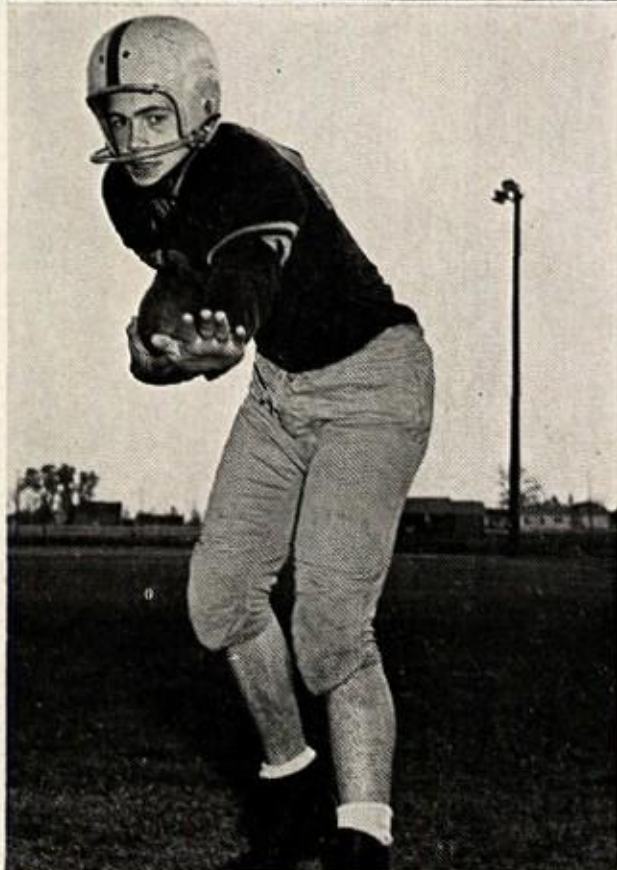

JOHN MCKAY—John played as our regular back on offense. He was our fleetest back and several times in the season broke away for a long run. He won honorable mention on the Little Six All-Star team. John was the only sophomore regular.

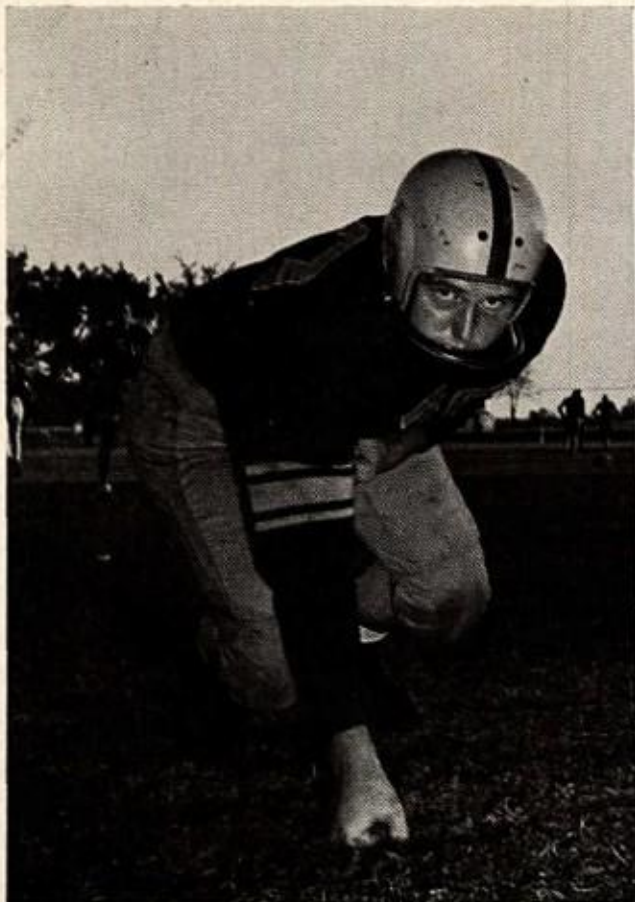

JOE MARKLEY—"Elmer," one of the hardest workers on the team, played in the backfield. He also took over part of the passing duties for the team. On defense he played halfback. This was Joe's first year out for varsity football.

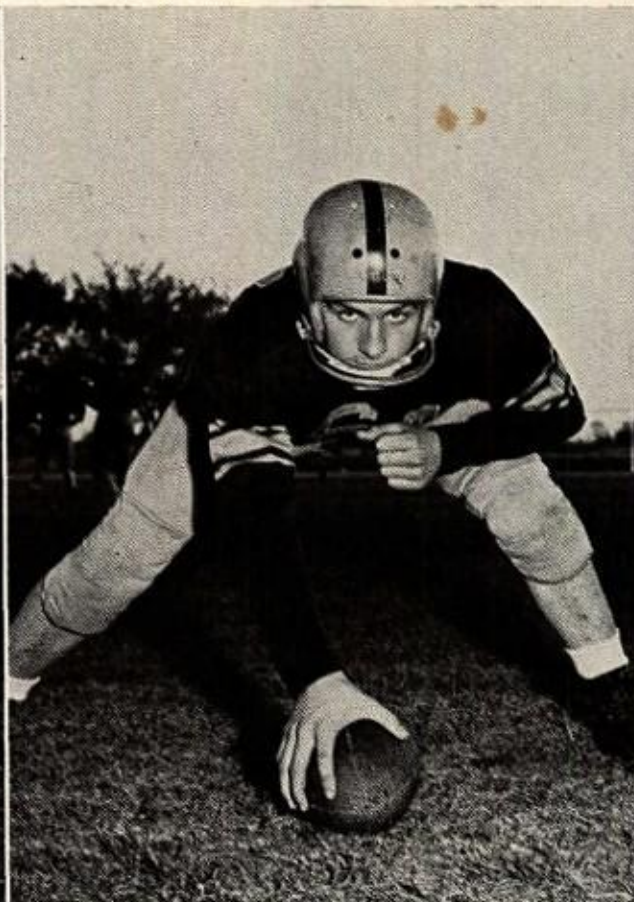

JIM MARKS—Jim ended up the season playing as regular left end and defensive halfback. Before this he was Coach Gregory's utility man, playing at offensive halfback and quarterback on different occasions. His team spirit was always high.

JOHN BOWMAN—John, our biggest offensive lineman, was our regular offensive tackle. John had one of the fastest charges of any member of the team. This aided his hard blocks, which were his specialty. John also handled the kicking chores.

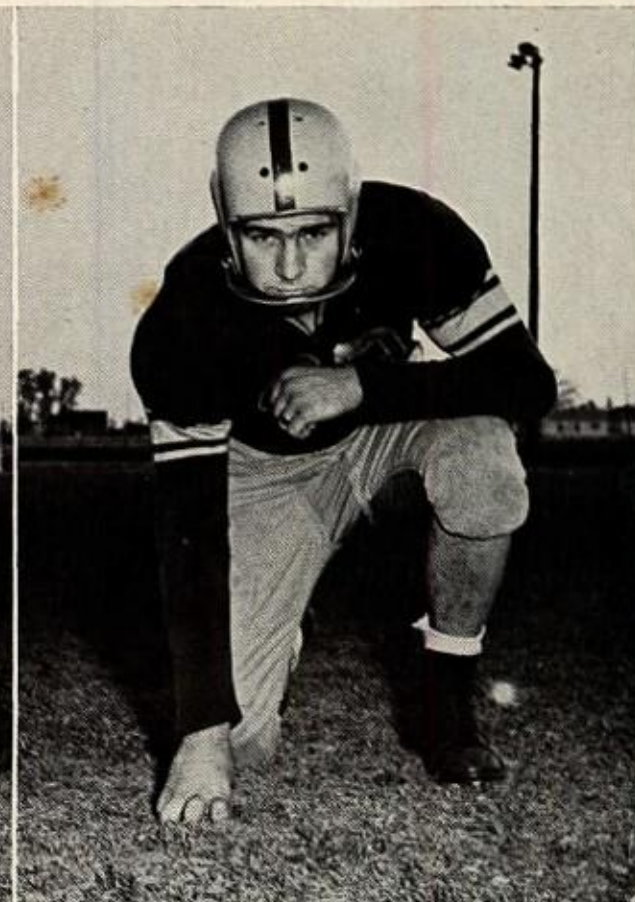

LARAY PRUETT—"Knut," a senior, was our extra-point kicker. This was LaRay's first year out for varsity football. When not practicing field goals, LaRay played as tackle. LaRay's good-natured attitude and playing earned the respect of his fellow players off and on the gridiron.

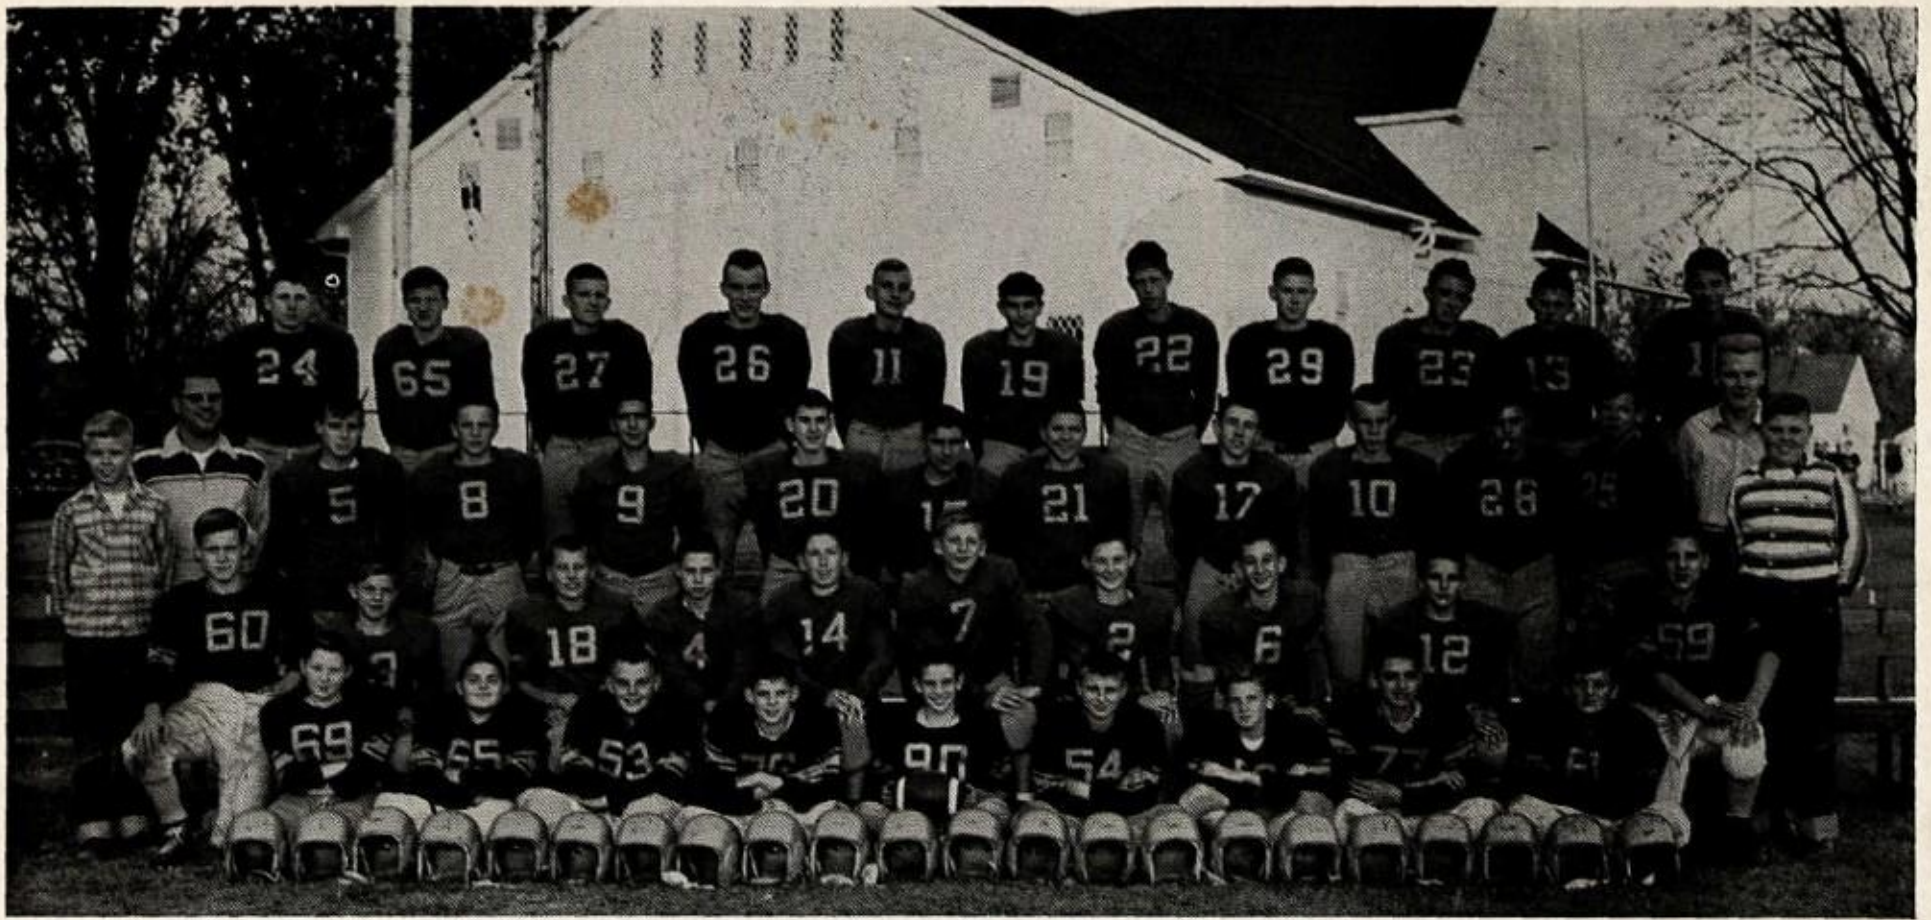

RAY CRAMER—Ray was the good-natured junior who played center on offense. On defense he played linebacker. Opposing teams respected his hard block and tackle. Ray was selected on the Little Six All-Star second team and won honorable mention on the All-Western team.

DALE GIBBS—"Guppie," in his first year out for football, overcame the handicap of no experience to play as one of the best offensive and defensive guard substitutes. Having a fast charge, Dale was a rough guard to play against. A senior, he will be lost through graduation.

Starting out the football season with a victory over Lombard, the first in Knoxville's history, the Baby Bullets went on to win four more games and lose only one. Their victories included wins over Farmington, ROVA, Lombard, Winola, and Roseville. Their lone defeat was at the hands of Abingdon.

Coaches Manuel and Strobbe were greeted by forty-four hopeful junior high athletes last fall. Out of this group, seventeen were freshmen, seventeen were eighth graders, and ten were seventh graders. Seven returning lettermen furnished the needed experience for a successful season.

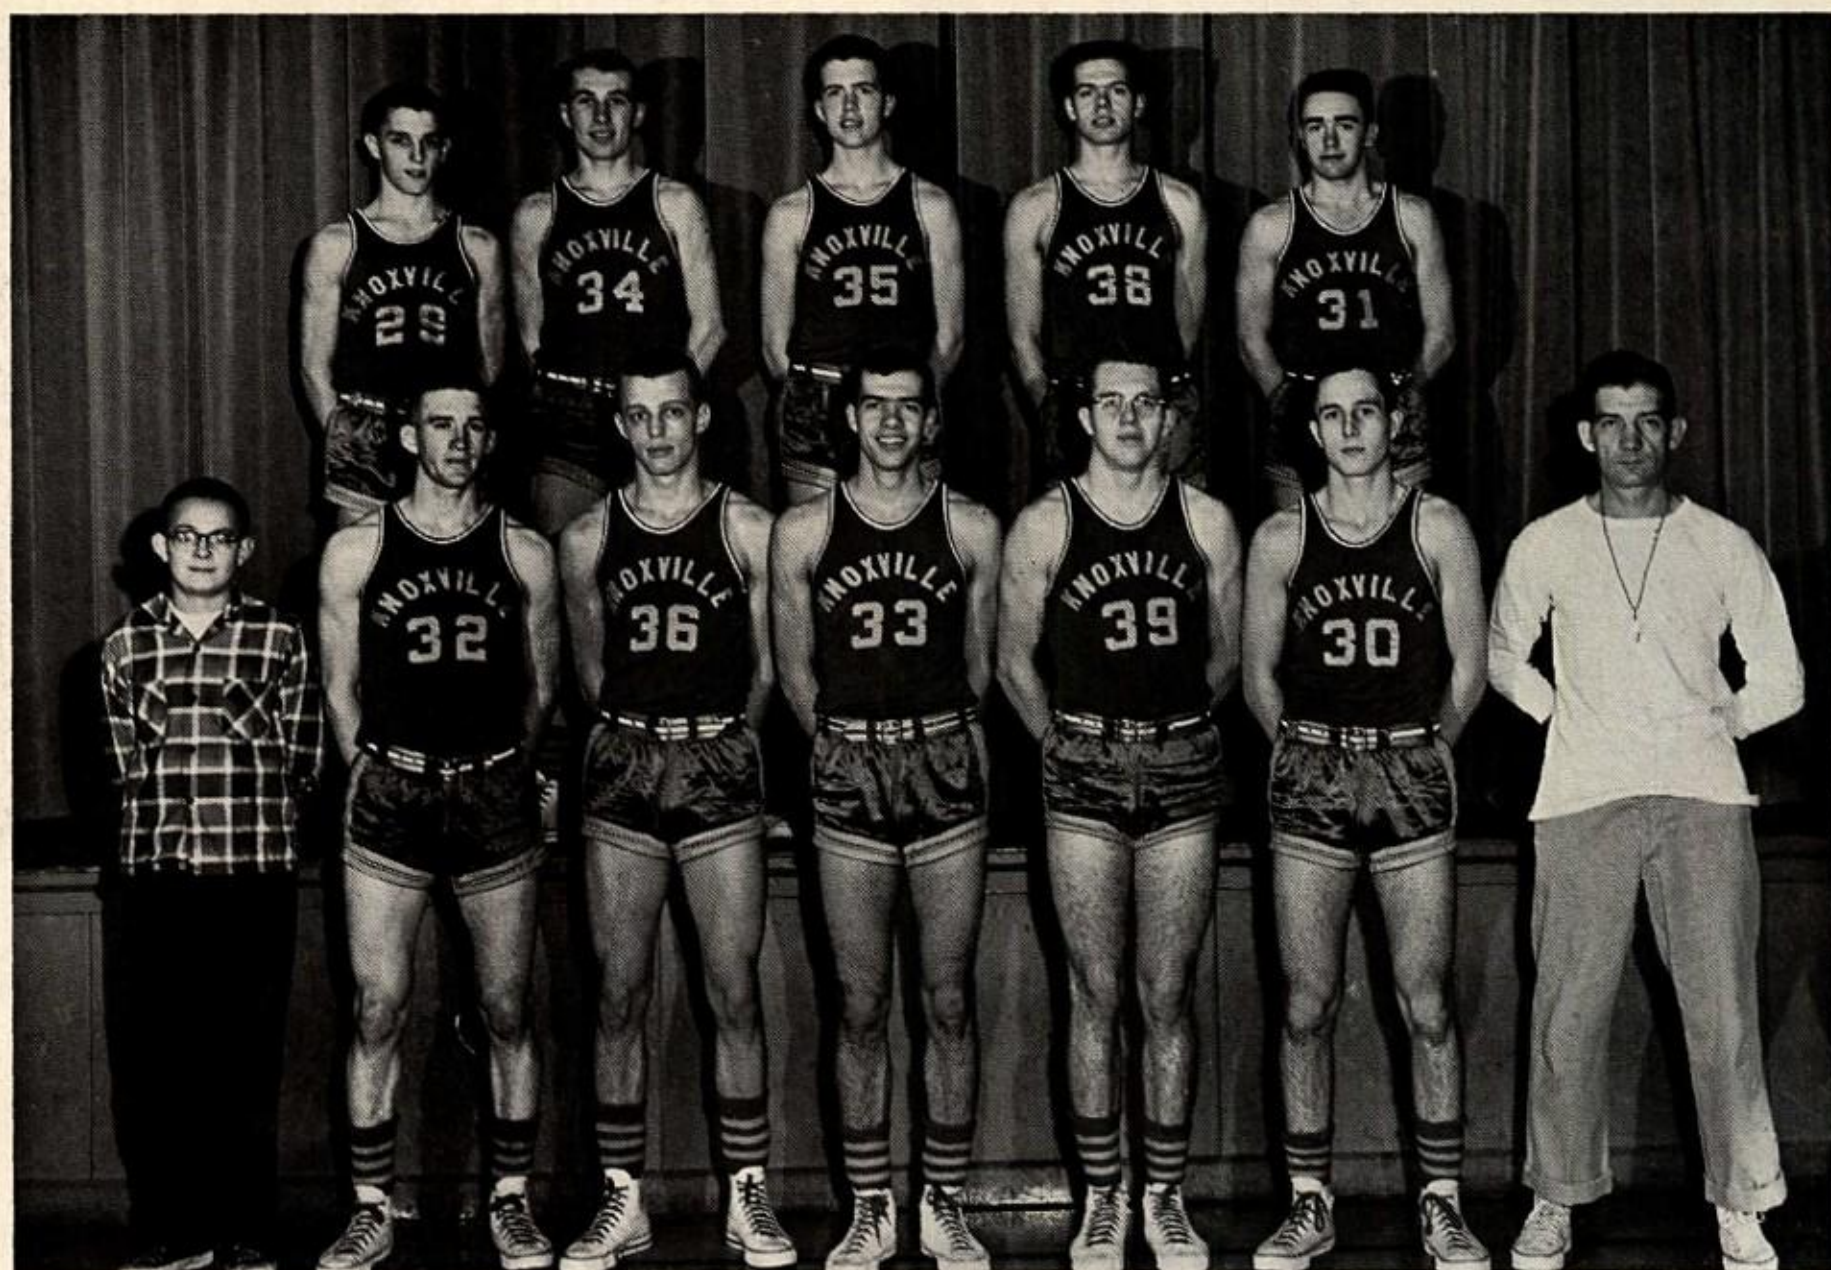

Excellent teamwork combined with a hard-hitting line and a shifty backfield held the key to the Baby Bullets' winning combination.

The seventh and eighth grades had two games scheduled this year. Both of these games were lost, one to Monmouth and one to Aledo.

This season's junior high record indicated that these boys should furnish good material for future varsity football teams.

1956-57 Varsity Basketball

Under the capable direction of Coach John King, the 1956-57 varsity basketball team compiled a very successful record of twenty-four wins and only four losses.

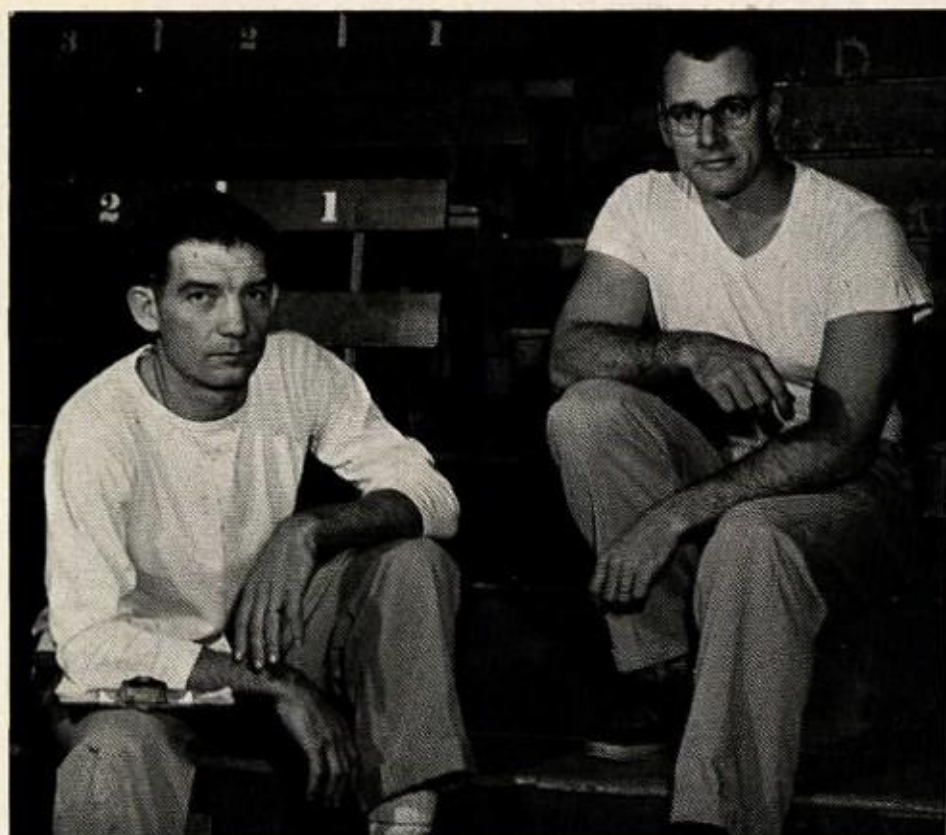

Knoxville and Aledo shared first place honors in the Little Six conference with identical conference records of nine wins and one loss. The Bullets won the Galva Tournament championship by downing Elmwood, Galva, and Wethersfield. They copped the Knox County championship with wins over Yates City and Abingdon. Knoxville took second place in the regional tournament by downing Corpus Christi and Cambridge before losing to Galesburg.

All-Star conference honors were received by four of the five starters on the Bullet squad.

Captain Jim Philblad and Ray Godsil were elected to the conference team for the second year in a row. George Clark was also elected to the All-Star team while Joe Markley received honorable mention.

The team's successful record was due to the superb work of Coach King coupled with the team play of the squad. The Bullets worked well together with all five men playing an important part in each game.

This year's starting five, all seniors, have played together since their eighth grade days, with the exception of their junior year. Since then they have compiled the amazing record of seventy-eight wins and five losses.

*Jim Philblad
"Capt."*

JIM PHILBLAD—"Peel," at 6' 1", led the team in two ways, as a captain and as a play-maker. "Peel" was a very good defensive man and got many rebounds for the Bullets. He was chosen as a member of the Little Six All-Star team.

Ray Godsil

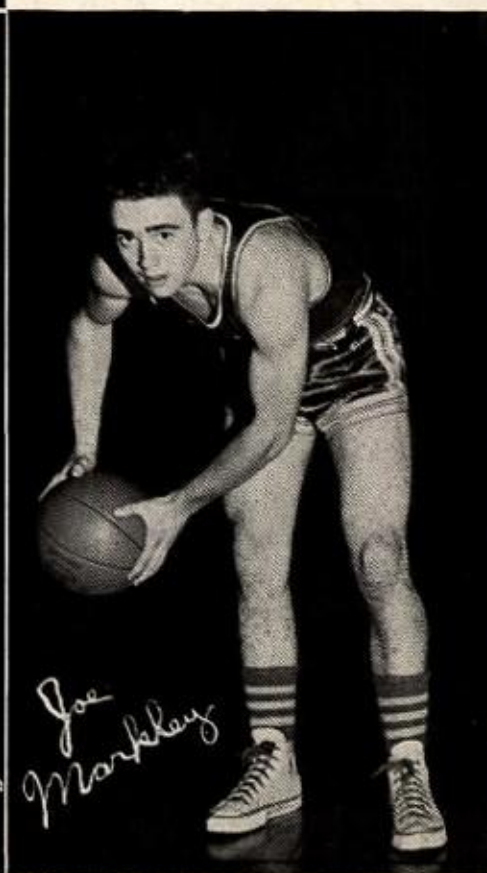

RAY GODSIL—"Swanee" was the Bullet's 6' 2" regular pivot man. He was the team's leading scorer for the season with a 15 point per game average. Ray was elected to the Little Six All-Star team for the second year in a row.

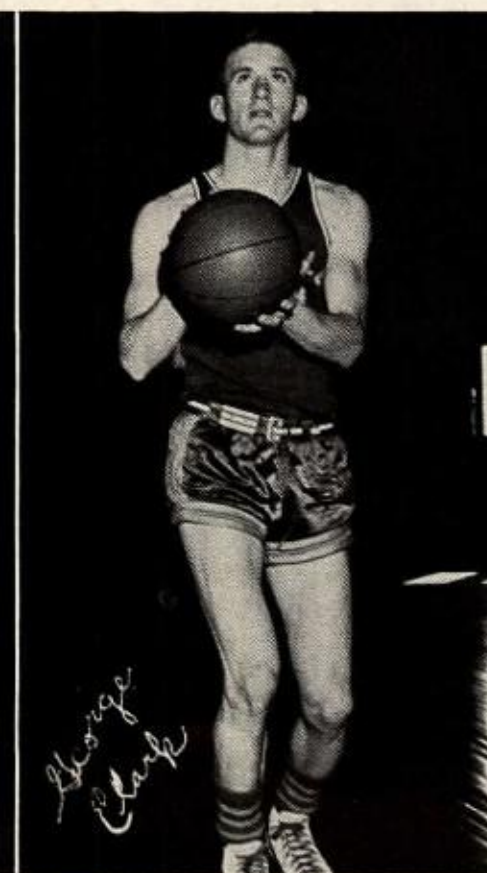

Jim Marks

JIM MARKS—Jim at 6' even held down a guard position on the starting five. He had deadly set and jump shots which he used effectively. Jim, a senior, played good, steady ball throughout the season.

JOE MARKLEY — "Elmer" was a 5' 8" senior forward on this year's squad. Despite his lack of size, Joe always got his share of rebounds. He was known for his tremendous scrappiness and free-throw shooting ability.

Joe Markley

George Clark

GEORGE CLARK — George, a senior, scored heavily for the Bullets from his regular forward position. He was noted for his hard driving and had tremendous speed. He was elected to the Little Six All-Star team.

Captain Jim Philblad and Coach John King.

MELVIN STINEBAUGH—Mel was a 6' forward who saw plenty of action and was always "pushing hard" for a starting position. He was noted for his rebounding and ball handling ability. Mel, a junior, will be back next year.

DICK MCCOY—Standing 6' 3", Dick had the honor of being the tallest man on the squad. He used his size well and did a good job of rebounding. Dick, a junior, will be back next year and will probably see plenty of action.

LANCE HUMPHREYS—At 5' 8" "Shag" was the smallest member of this year's team, but he made up for his lack of size with a great determination. Lance will be back next year and should prove to be a valuable asset to the team.

GARY TASKER — Another of the team's juniors was 6' guard Gary Tasker. Gary had an accurate jump shot and played a good defensive game. Gaining experience this year, Gary should see plenty of action next year.

ROD GODSIL — Rod was another reason for this year's fine bench strength. He could be counted on to pull down his share of the rebounds. Rod will be back next year as a senior to carry on the Godsil name.

1956 Track

1957 Track Captain George Clark.

Under the leadership of Coach Goodwin and captain Ron Webber, Knoxville in 1956 had one of the most successful track seasons in school history.

In place of the annual Knox County track meet, which was discontinued at the end of 1955, the A.K.R. Invitational Track Meet was formed in 1956 by Abingdon, Knoxville, and ROVA. Knoxville brought home the first championship trophy.

Many records fell during the season as Knoxville won the Galva Relays, took second place in the Little Six conference, and brought home third place honors in the annual Monmouth Relays. Gibbs, Miyler, Clark, and Johnson ran the fastest 880-yard relay in school history with the time of 1:34.1. They broke the Monmouth 440-yard relay record. Nelson, Bybee, Lowe, and Westerfield broke the Little Six two-mile relay record. Godsil, Totten, Tasker, and Steele won the Galva Relay and Little Six high hurdle shuttles.

Jerry Luallen was the first Bullet trackster to go to the state meet since 1953. A pole vaulter, he broke the record at the Monmouth Relays. George Clark was chosen to lead the 1957 squad.

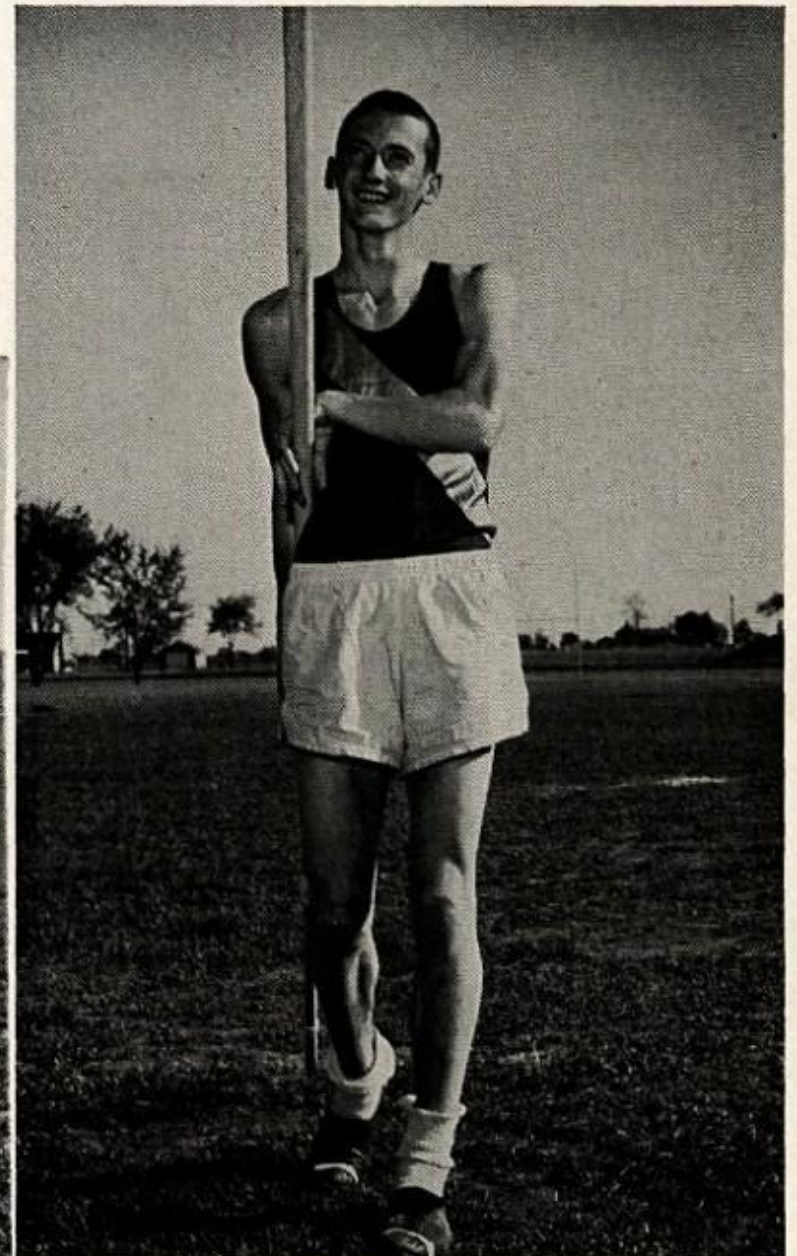

School's 880-yard relay record holders: D. Gibbs, D. Miylar, G. Clark, R. Johnson.

Little Six two-mile relay record holders: B. Nelson, E. Bybee, L. Lowe, J. Westerfield.

The custodians kept the buildings and grounds clean and presentable at all times.

Our capable bus drivers brought us to classes on time in all kinds of weather and returned us home safely.

The credit for our well-balanced meals goes to the cooks in the cafeteria who each day, under the direction of Mrs. Mary Goff, lunchroom supervisor, prepared the food for three hundred students.

Cooks: Mrs. Stockton, Mrs. Hutson, Mrs. Tate, Mrs. McGrew, Mrs. Chism.

To help finance the Jester, the staff sent letters to the farmers having students in Knoxville Junior and Senior High School asking for a bushel of corn or $1.50. This corn was then sold to Dale Washabaugh. The money received from this project was used to help pay for the yearbook. The Jester Staff would like to thank all of those who donated.
